Hi,
I'm talking to the 2 different contractors that assessed the job and trying to land on a start date.
They're asking me if the upstairs is totally ready and could I send them a few more pics.
May I come back and check it out?

Yes

It's unlocked. I'm setting up laundry. The heavy things are gone from upstairs. Were you looking to start Monday?

I'll be over in a few minutes
