Hi Luci,

Just wanted to give you notice that another roofing contractor will be coming here tomorrow at 2pm to assess the job.

I got a voicemail from the inspector that came out yesterday. He left it just before 5pm when they finish and they have this Friday off according to the message.

What he said in his message did not match the situation as I thought you and I understood it.

He was rather punitive in the way he spoke and what he said. And I guess I won't learn more from him until Monday.

Did he or you determine the habitability ?
